THE ILLUSTRATED CATALOGUE

PUBLISHED BY THE

New York Etching Club

this year is the beginning of a new series. In it there are etchings never before published, by Messrs. Colman, Church, Platt, Lathrop and Chapman, and a Kurtz portrait of each etcher.

A preface treats of the popular demand and supply of etchings, describes briefly several methods of etching and engraving and speculates concerning the future of the art of etching in this country.

In succeeding publications each member of the Club will be represented. When the series is complete it will form a collection of examples of the etched work of all of the members of the Club, with portraits of each, and short essays pertinent to the art and its interests.

The edition is a very small one, being limited to five hundred copies at one dollar each. For sale at the desk. Orders should be sent to
